Indictment Filed over Irregularities in Asset Declarations

The Prosecutor of the Warsaw-Praga Północ District Prosecutor's Office has filed an indictment with the Warsaw-Praga Północ District Court in Warsaw in proceedings conducted by the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau. The indictment concerns allegations of irregularities in asset declarations.

Officers of the CBA Regional Office in Warsaw have concluded an investigation into false information provided in asset declarations submitted in 2024 and 2025 by a management board member of a State Treasury-owned company.

Undisclosed Liabilities and Income

According to the findings of officers of the CBA Regional Office in Warsaw, the defendant, who held a public position as a member of the Management Board of Totalizator Sportowy, was subject to restrictions on engaging in additional professional activities. Nevertheless, he allegedly received income from various sources and failed to disclose, among other things, outstanding debts and certain sources of income in his asset declarations. The irregularities concerned declarations submitted in 2024 and 2025.

The undisclosed information included, among other things, financial liabilities, income from employment and income from personally performed activities. Such conduct constitutes an offence under Article 14 of the aforementioned Act.

Indictment Filed

On 23 September 2026, the indictment in this case, approved by the Prosecutor of the Warsaw-Praga Północ District Prosecutor's Office, was submitted to the Warsaw-

Praga Północ District Court in Warsaw. This marks the conclusion of the investigation conducted by the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau.
